Kenan Peköz is currently Creative Director for Seattle radio stations Newsradio 710 KIRO, 770 KNWX, and 100.7 The Buzz. He has held a variety of positions in radio since 1985. His work has been honored by the Colorado Broadcaster's Association, the Puget Sound Broadcaster's Association, the Associated Press, and the Radio & Television News Directors Association.. He spends the rest of his time doing freelanced voiceover work, attending ASL classes, and hiking in the Cascades and Olympics.

Kenan was born and raised on the east coast in Massachusetts and Ithaca, NY. He attended Cornell University to study agriculture. Realizing that a career in Agriculture required early wake-up calls, he changed majors to Business and Marketing but was always an avid fan of radio. During college he nurtured his interest in radio working part-time as a disc jockey. He offers no explanation as to why it was easier to get up early to be on the radio than to study barn ventilation or the applications of manure.

Since his graduation in 1991 he has worked in Denver Colorado, Palo Alto California, and Seattle Washington enjoying positions in radio production, imaging, promotions, graphic design, newspaper advertising, and as a university adviser. His greatest inspirations in life have come from family, friends, the unexpected, and the profound natural beauty of the world around us.
