Group Discussions: Understanding the Role of ASL Interpreters

Let's get together and meet new friends through our zoom meeting! We'll break into small groups for discussion questions. We'll learn about each other's experiences, perceptions, and successes! We'll learn about each other's experiences, perceptions, and successes! 1 hour → After 20 minutes, we'll take a 5-min break, then join another different group for 20 minutes.

As a host, I won't need to lecture about all the details - just navigate. When you join a small group, feel free to select one or two questions to discuss. If I join your group, you can sign or type (use chat) - whichever works for you.

This session is free! ($10 for RID CEUs)

Questions:

- What's one of your favorites from the CPC list that's especially challenging?
- What are some pros and cons about your career field?
- What kinds of specific challenges have you faced in your interpreting field?
- How do you handle it when a deaf person doesn't prefer you as the interpreter?
- How has the interpreting field changed over the past 30 years? What's next?
- How do we handle working with hospitals that hire community interpreters?
- How do we handle "special" requests such as music concerts, "live" TV news, and so on?
- Can we examine our own beliefs and feelings about hearing identities and how these impact our interpreting role?
- List some ways we interpreters can support and help each other.

- When trust is broken, what can we do to rebuild it?
- List some ways we interpreters can support and help each other.
- Do you work for an interpreter agency or not?
- During your interpreting experiences, have you learned anything new about culture?
- Which areas of specialized interpreting skills do you have now?
- (Your question related to interpreting skills & career)
